Borgonione 76 A Battle Piece. A capital and spirited picture, formerly in the possession of Lord Mansford
A. Schiavoni 77 The Siege of Jerusalem. A composition not inferior to Raphael
Rembrandt 78 A Pilgrim at Prayers, known by the title of Rembrandt's Pilgrim, one of his finest works
Du Jardin 79 A pleasing Landscape, with Peasants and Cattle
Tiepolo 80 An Elector paying Obedience to the Emperor. The works of this master are scarce in cabinet pictures, being mostly employed in decorating ceilings of palaces, or large works
Wouwermans 81 A Landscape. An extensive scene, with a river like the Danube in the distance, enriched with various horses and figures
Permegiano 82 The Nativity with Adoration of Angels, &c. A very elegant cabinet picture, in style of Raphael, of whom he was a scholar
Cnyp 83 A Portrait of a Horse, painted in his brilliant and enamelled stile
Breemberg 84 A pair of small neat Landscapes, with Ruins and Buildings, on copper
Brouwer 85 An Interior, with a Woman at Needlework. The effect equal to G. Douvy or Rembrandt, but more accurate to nature

LOT

Titian

87 The Holy Family. A small cabinet picture, a gem out of the collection of King Charles the First Teniers88 A pair of Landscapes, one with Gypsies telling Fortunes, the other a Man opening Muscles, of the true silver tone of colouring and a magic pencil, fine

Watteaux

89 A Return from the Chace. A very animated group of gentlemen and ladies regaling, delicately painted, of his best time, and in the highest preservation

Van Der Heyde

90 A pair of brilliant high finished cabinet jewels, Views of Towns in Holland, with Figures, by Adrian V. D. Velde

Le Duc

91 A Corps du Gardes. A singular chaste and fine picture, equal to Gerard Douw

Chew. V. D. Werff

92 The Genius of Music. A picturesque group, a combination enriched with various instruments and emblems of music, of great force and delicacy Wouwermans93 A Landscape, with a Traveller giving Charity to poor Peasants. A high finished cabinet picture

Cuyt

94 A Landscape with a Group of Horses, A pleasing effect, nature strictly imitated throughout, one of his finest productions

LOT

- Ger. Douw 95 A Girl with Fruit and Herbage. Invaluable when we consider the scarcity of this inimitable master's works
- Corregio 96 St. Cecilia with a Concert of Angels. A choice cabinet picture, the attitudes easy and elegant, the tone of colouring harmonious—THE WHOLE CAPTIVATING
-  Teniers * 97 A Flemish Village Feast, disposed in Groups Regaling,—full of animated expression, and richness of colouring, with a spirited and delicate pencil—
A CAPITAL PERFORMANCE
-  Berghem 98 A Landscape, with a picturesque Group of Cattle and Figures, with an extensive grand Distance—one of the finest cabinet pictures of this great artist
- Poussin 99 The Education of Bacchus. Its needless to comment on the grandeur in which Poussin treats all his subjects; this, in particular, possesses all that fire and genius in which his works stand unrivalled
-  Teniers 100 A View of a Flemish Village. A clear fine toned picture, the figures touched with exquisite freedom and spirit
-  Berghem 101 A Landscape, an Italian Country, with a fine Group of Cows, Horses, Sheep, and Figures; treated with great taste, in a masterly stile, and finished with a very accurate and delicate pencil—
CAPITAL
-  Ditto 102 Ditto, the companion, of equal merit

LOT

- Sir F. Bourgeois 103 A clear pleasing Landscape with a Timber Cart, the whole finished with great accuracy and spirit
- Loutherbrough 104 A Battle between the Turks and Russians. A grand scene, the figures and horses for animation and spirit are equal to the finest of Borgonione's works, presumed the most capital performance of this subject by Loutherbrough
-  Vernet 105 A Sea Port, with a Storm rising. The agitation of the elements treated in a grand style, and suitable to the distressing scene, the figures animated and employed with propriety. This and the Companion were painted during his residence in Italy, while his taste was chaste, truly in his very best manner
- Ditto 106 The Companion, a Calm, a Sun Set, a Serenity and Stillness pervades the whole, which is of equal merit with the foregoing lot
- N. Pouffin 107 The Holy Family. An expressive and sublime dignity in the characters, truly great. Pouffin has much of Raphael in his mind and composition of this fine subject
- P. Veroneffe 108 A Cardinal Blessing the Founder of Lorretto. The attitudes well conceived, the colouring harmonious; one of the most perfect and finished performances of this admired master

Rubens

109 Samson and Delilah. This picture alone would be sufficient to establish the reputation of this great artist; the expression of anxiety or mistrust in Delilah, with the eager attention of her attendants so animated, every spectator might take himself for a party present; the colouring luxuriant and rich, evidently painted after seeing the best works of the Venetian School. One of the first rate performances of this great master, out of the collection of the late Sir Gregory Page

By Van Dyck.
